THURSDAY

Community Hour with Rev. Mel White at 11:10 am. Santee Chapel

Rev. Mel White is a Christian minister, author, filmmaker and co-founder of Soulforce Inc.

Inspired by the nonviolence movements of Ghandi and Martin Luther King, Jr., White developed a program based on their principles -- which come from the teachings of Jesus and are called satyagraha or "soul force." He adapted them to address the suffering of lesbian, gays, bisexual, and transgendered people and has spent years embodying these principles as he encourages society and the Church to release their own "soul force."

Mel White Panel Discussion and Lunch at 12:00 pm. Dietz Refectory

The panel includes Rev White, LTS professors and students, and local pastors.

The cost is $5.00. Please see Donna Kaplan TODAY to attend this event.

Living Out the Vision: How do Congregations Get From Here to There (workshop) from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. Hafer Center

A hands-on workshop will introduce study materials produced by UCC to assist churches in the Open and Affirming (ONA) process. The workshop will be guided by Rev. Al Fluent, Associate Conference Minister of Central PA. Materials from other denominations, and their respective processes, will also be available.
